

Will you help Pennsylvania become more competitive?

CompetePA is a statewide coalition of businesses, economic development organizations and business organizations working to grow Pennsylvania's economy for a brighter future. The coalition's web site, www.CompetePA.com, is an important source of information about how to improve Pennsylvania's economy and encourage job creation.

We invite your organization to join the coalition.

Please check the box and complete the contact information below.

Yes, you can list my company or organization name as a member of the coalition and a supporter of CompetePA. (Names of coalition members may be included in media materials.)

If you have further questions, please call CompetePA at (412) 392-2409.
